

R U N A W A Y THE FIRST OF OCTOBER, 1740, from John Breese, of the City of New-York, Leather Dreßer, a Mullatto Indian Slave Named, Galloway. Aged 21 Years, about five foot four inches high, a thin body, face markt with SMALL-POX, he was born in the fort at Albany, can speak Dutch, and lived many Years with Paul Richards, Esq; some Years MAYOR OF THIS CITY; had on when he went away a dark gray homespun Jacket lin'd with the same, a pair of Linnen Breeches, and new Shoes; on the 3 Instant he was seen and challenged at Coll. Phillipse's Mill, and escaped by asserting he was sent in pursuit of a Cuba Man Run away, and took the Road towards New-England, he loves Rum and other strong liquors and when Tipsey, is a brave fellow and very abusive; Whoever Secures the said Slave so that his Master or his Attorney may dispose of him shall have Forty Shillings, Reward and Reasonable Charges paid by, John Breese.

34, p. 16