

Forty Shillings Reward. Run-away from the subscriber on Monday the 21st of April last, a yellowish Negro Fellow, named Bill, formerly belonging to Mr. Cornelius Clopper at Rariton Landing, in New-Jersey, appears to be about 20 or 22 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches in height, speaks good English and Low Dutch fluently, had on when he went away, an old red Cloth Jacket, a Pair of old Homespun Trowsers, and an Iron Collar; which last is supposed he has found Assistance to get off. Whoever takes up and secures him so that I may get him again shall have Forty Shillings Reward for their Trouble, besides all necessary Expenses. All Masters of Vessels and other Persons, are warned not to carry off, conceal or harbour the said Runaway, as they would avoid a Prosecution of the law. New York, May 1, 1766. John Klein.
